At 1:30 this afternoon, the new, improved and accurate Pay Calc worksheet has been posted to the Accounting web site and is ready for use by ya'll. If you have used a worksheet for 2012 from the web site earlier, you should probably re-run the sheet using the latest version as the former versions did not calculate the federal tax according to the exemptions and marital status listed. Please discard any 2012 worksheets previously downloaded or received in an email and use the one from the web site now.

Thanks.
