Date: Thursday, May 20, 2010 10:53:43 AM

Certification deadline for the M05 monthly payroll has been moved back a day (to Monday, May 24th) to accommodate those of you who were experiencing problems while processing the payroll and to provide more time for you to verify the entries made. The problem with the end dates on benefits has been resolved. You may now resume processing your monthly payroll. Please continue checking the deduction amounts to be sure they are calculating properly. Call me if you encounter further problems. Thanks for your patience.
