State Miscellaneous Claims Act, Nebraska Revised Statutes §§ 81-8,294 to 81-8,301

Miscellaneous claim shall mean any claim against the State for which there is no other specific provision of law for the resolution of such claim.

Typical Miscellaneous Claims would be for:

- Damage to an employee's personal property.
- Reimbursement of an overpayment.
- Reimbursement of a State Employee's work-related expenses when not within 60 days to the responsible Agency.
- A Claimant who has paid the State of Nebraska for items or services the Claimant has not received.

All such claims or requests and supporting documents shall be filed with Risk Management. It is important to keep copies of all documents submitted as the Office of Risk Management does not return any documents to the Claimant.

All claims permitted under the State Miscellaneous Claims Act, excluding Uncashed Warrant Claims, shall be forever barred unless the claim is filed with Risk Management within two years after the time the claim occurred.

What Happens Next?*Claims under $5,000.00:

Once filed, a letter of acknowledgement confirming that the claim has been received will be mailed to the Claimant and the appropriate agency will be notified. After the investigation is complete, the Risk Manager will then approve or deny the claim, based upon the available information.

If approved, a release will be sent to the Claimant. The original release needs to be signed, in the presence of a public notary, and returned to the Office of Risk Management exactly as instructed in the accompanying letter. Once the signed and notarized release has been received, the claim will be processed for payment.

The acceptance by the Claimant of award shall be final and conclusive on the Claimant's part. Acceptance shall constitute a complete release by the Claimant of any claim against the State or against the employee of the State whose act or omission gave rise to the claim.

If denied, a denial letter will be sent to the Claimant and the claim will be closed.

If a Claimant is dissatisfied with the Risk Manager's decision, whether approved or denied, a request that the State Claims Board review the claim may be submitted. A request for appeal, submitted in writing, is required to be sent to the Office of Risk Management within 60 days of the date on the Risk Manager's approval or denial letter. The claim will then be heard by the State Claims Board (please see below).

Claims $5,000.00 to $50,000.00 and Appeals (State Claims Board):

Appealed claims and those ranging from $5,000.00 to $50,000.00 must be approved or denied by the State Claims Board. Claimants will be notified by mail of the hearing date and time. The hearing dates are posted in the Office of Risk Management and also under the State Claims Board tab at the Office of Risk Management website. Claimants may attend the hearing, but it is not required. If a Claimant wishes to attend, they must notify the Office of Risk Management, in writing, at least one week prior to the hearing. Once the claim has been heard by the State Claims Board, the Claimant will be notified of the action taken on the claim within ten days of the hearing.

If a Claimant is dissatisfied with the decision of the board, they may file an application for review by the Legislature. The application for review must be filed with Risk Management within sixty days after the date of the State Claims Board decision.

Claims above $50,000.00:

Claims recommended for approval that are above $50,000.00 must be approved by the Nebraska State Legislature. The Legislature meets once per year, beginning in January.
