

The East portion of the Nebr. plate shop.

This is the full East wall and the possible location of a new blanking line extending from the wall going West towards the current line. Floor space is open and sees lower use now because we are not in a re-issue production phase. Two poly-baggers are stationed here and boxed order and shipping occur here.